DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 90 s. 2026

22nd WOMEN WITH DISABILITIES DAY

TO: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chief Education Supervisors, CID and SGOD
Education Program Supervisors and Division Coordinators
Public Schools District Supervisors and OIC-PSDSs
Public Elementary School Heads
Public Secondary School Heads
All others concerned

1. Pursuant to Proclamation No. 744 (2004) entitled Declaring the Last Monday of March of Every Year as Women with Disabilities Day, the Department of Education in coordination with the National Council on Disability Affairs, encourages all regions, divisions and schools to celebrate the 22nd Women with Disabilities Day on March 30, 2026. This year's theme, "Landas ng Makabagong Babaylan: Pantay, Inklusibo at Lahat May Kakayahan", celebrates women with disabilities and community transformation.

2. To support this celebration, all schools are encouraged to conduct activities aligned with the theme, including but not limited to:

- Display campaign materials within school premises and on official media pages. To ensure branding consistency, schools should use the official NCDA designs which are available at <https://tinyurl.com/2026-WWD>.
- Integrate the celebration into flag ceremonies by encouraging learners and faculty to wear purple ribbons. In the spirit of female leadership, the assembly should be led by female teachers and learners, including a female teacher with disability who will lead a pledge of inclusion.
- Facilitate short, engaging sessions such as teaching learners basic Filipino Sign Language (FSL) for the theme "Pantay, Inklusibo at Lahat May Kakayahan", or introducing the Braille system by showing learners how to write their names using its characters and symbols.
- Host programs that showcase the talents, skills, and achievement of women with disabilities locally and internationally. Schools may also invite guest speakers to share inspiring stories of leadership and empowerment.

Pursuant to Proclamation No. 744 (2004) entitled Declaring the Last Monday of March of Every Year as Women with Disabilities Day, the Department of Education (DepEd) in coordination with the National Council on Disability Affairs (NCDA), encourages all regions, divisions, and schools to celebrate the 22nd Women with Disabilities Day on March 30, 2026. This year's theme, "Landas ng Makabagong Babaylan: Pantay, Inklusibo, at Lahat May Kakayahan," celebrates women with disabilities as visionary leaders whose inherent capabilities drive meaningful inclusion and community transformation.

To support this celebration, all schools are encouraged to conduct activities aligned with the theme, including the following but not limited to:

1. Display campaign materials within school premises and on official social media pages. To ensure branding consistency, schools should use the official NCDA designs, which are available at <https://tinyurl/2026-WWD>.
2. Integrate the celebration into the flag ceremonies by encouraging learners and faculty to wear purple ribbons or flaglets. In the spirit of female leadership, the assembly should be led by female teachers and learners, including a female teacher with a disability who will lead a pledge of inclusion.
3. Facilitate short, engaging sessions such as teaching learners basic Filipino Sign Language (FSL) for the theme "Pantay, Inklusibo, at Lahat May Kakayahan," or introducing the Braille system by showing learners how to write their names using its characters and symbols.
4. Host programs that showcase the talents, skills, and achievements of women with disabilities locally and internationally. Schools may also invite guest speakers to share inspiring stories of leadership and empowerment.

The Department emphasizes that this celebration is a collective endeavor. This calls upon general education learners, learners with disabilities, parents, and all stakeholders to participate actively.
